

R.E.A.L kids CARNIVAL

AT R.E.A.L KIDS TAMAN TUN DR. ISMAIL

15th May, 2009

CARNIVAL OF UNITY FOR THE COMMUNITY

9th of May 2009, marked R.E.A.L Kids Taman Tun Dr. Ismail's (TTDI) very first carnival. TTDI's principal, Mrs. Sarasa Bala explained

"The carnival is a good opportunity for us to get to know our neighbourhood better and for them understand what R.E.A.L Kids is all about."

Despite that Saturday being a public holiday 'Wesak Day', parents and residents from the neighbourhood were seen at the centre as early as 8.30am.

R.E.A.L Kids TTDI teachers had been working hard the whole week to create fun games for the children. A few teachers put up a night at the centre, just to be up early that morning to prepare the 'hot and fresh' food and drinks to be sold. Activities were lined up for the children every hour. Children participated happily in games, colouring contest, sand art contest, creative craft contest, face painting, henna painting and lucky draw. Parents, especially the mothers, were seen getting their hands painted with henna too.

Two main highlights of the carnival were "Lucy the Pony" and the "Inflatable Play Area". Lucy was indeed the 'superstar' that morning, with her 'fans' eagerly wanting a ride on her. Let's not forget our funny clown, who gave out free balloons throughout the morning. Interested parents were seen enquiring at the 3 booths: Character First!, R.E.A.L International School and Sekolah Seri Cahaya. Quite a handful signed up for the FREE Character First! E-Newsletter too. We also celebrated Mother's Day with a cake cutting ceremony.

R.E.A.L Kids TTDI carnival was a success! ALL 500 coupon booklets (worth RM5000) were sold and there were several new enrolments that morning! Excellent teamwork was shown as R.E.A.L Kids principals and staff from other Klang Valley centres came to help out. On a last note, Mrs. Bala highlighted,

“The carnival is FANTASTIC! We had a G-O-O-D time! My teachers and I will take this event as a learning process so that we can organize a R.E.A.L GREATER carnival the next round!”
